

Privacy Policy statement

This is the website of Kwik Kerb. You can reach us via email on kkinfo@kwikkerb.com.au or by phone on 1800 773 231.

The information we collect

Kwik Kerb collects email addresses of those who post messages to our bulletin board; make postings to our chat areas and communicate with us via email; Kwik Kerb also collects user-specific and aggregate information (such as what pages of our website that customers access or visit) and survey information.

Confidential information

If you are making an enquiry about becoming a Kwik Kerb Operator, we will also ask you to provide certain personal and confidential information including your name and address and telephone and fax numbers.

This information is treated differently to other information. It is collected only for the purpose of your enquiry. It will be kept confidential and not disclosed to any other party, unless you request us to do so, or as may be required by law.

Access to personal information

You may request access to personal information about you held by Kwik Kerb by writing to us at our email address and addressing your email to our Privacy Officer.

What do we use the information for?

Information collected is used to improve the content of our web page, notify customers about updates to our website, to contact customers and generally for marketing purposes.

How do you remove your name from our mailing list?

You may receive telephone calls or periodic mailings with information on new products and services or on upcoming events. Similar information is provided by email. If you do not wish us to contact you or receive any mail from us, please telephone or email and ask to have your details removed from our database. If you are receiving material by post, please also confirm your name and address, so that we can be sure your name is removed.

We do not partner with, or have any special relationship with, any ad server company.

We do not set any cookies.

If you feel that Kwik Kerb is not following this Privacy Policy, please contact us. We would like to hear from you.
